Dhamma Laṭṭhikā, meaning ‘Rod of Dhamma’, is in Phnom Trung Moan, district of Phnom Sampeou, province of Battambang, in northwestern Cambodia. Located in a rural area about 18 kms from Battambang, the site covers an area of more than 39,000 sq m surrounding a hill called Phnom Trung Moan.

At present, only the northern part of the hill is used for the development of the Centre. The Dhamma Hall accommodates more than 150 students. However, in view of the limited male and female accommodation, Dhamma Laṭṭhikā can receive only 80 students (40 males and 40 females) for each course.

Presently, six 10-day courses are being held per year, with the first 10-day course being held from 14 to 25 January 2004. Presently, all courses are being conducted by Cambodian assistant teachers from Europe and USA.
